Parish Mass of Remembrance
Monday, November 3, 2014
7:30 p.m.

“God heals the broken hearted and binds up their wounds…
Counts the number of the stars, and calls each by name.” Psalm 147

We have daily opportunity to pray for our deceased loved ones. November is traditionally the month dedicated to the Holy Souls. We will, again this year, have a special Parish Mass of Remembrance on Monday evening, November 3, 2014 at 7:30 p.m.

Everyone is invited! Let’s gather together as a parish Community, joining our prayer with the communion of Saints in heaven.

Come as family, neighbors, friends to remember, to celebrate and believe… And may all who have gone before us find us faithful.

We have baskets at the church door for you to place the names of all your loved ones who have died through the years -- So, please write the names on a paper and place it in the basket to be presented at the offering of the gifts.

Let’s pray together for all who have gone before us… may they find us faithful…

We Remember
...We Celebrate
...We Believe

Lord,
for your faithful people
life is changed,
not ended.

Hospitality, immediately following Mass in St. Mary’s Hall -- with gratitude to our Peace and Justice Ministry.

Christian Stewardship
The challenge Christians face today are many and varied. Cardinal Dolan, the Archbishop of New York, recently described one of those most significant challenges: “Maybe the greatest threat to the Church is not heresy, not dissent, not secularism, not even moral relativism, but this sanitized, feel good, boutique, therapeutic spirituality that makes no demands, calls for no sacrifice, asks for no conversion, entails no battle against sin, but only sootes and affirms.”

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 26, 2014

In this Sunday’s Gospel we find the truth that loving God isn’t merely a matter of fervor in our hearts, but that it must be expressed in doing good for the sake of others.

In the month of September, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting 24 families, providing $150 in food, $2,520 in housing and rent assistance, $60 in healthcare, $95 in auto/gas, $575 in clothing and $2,190 in utilities. In addition, we were able to give 200 coats to those less fortunate through your generous donations.
